SECTION-A

Note: Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions :-

The disadvantages of drinking are too numerous to mention. It ruins the health and digestion of the drunkard, it ruins his family and children. Doctors have testified that women who drink, lose their fertility or produce children who are defective or diseased. As the proverb runs, Bacchus has drowned more men than Neptune. If you once take a glass of wine, you get a craving for more, with the result that it becomes your habit, you cannot give up. In the case of a literary man, it kills all initiative and the will to write. Coleridge could not complete his literary work for this reason. Many died of drinking.

(A) Now answer the following questions : (5x2 = 10)

- (i) What are the effects of drinking?
- (ii) How does drinking effect women?
- (iii) How do people get into the habit of drinking?
- (iv) Who could not complete his literary work?
